Contemporary Hudson River Home in Saugerties. Perched high on a hill above the Hudson River and nestled in the woods, this two story home has twin decks to maximize the view. Foyer has high cathedral ceilings with stained glass windows and invites you to the kitchen, dining and living room. Casement windows and french doors enhance the Hudson River views on both levels. Fully equipped kitchen with stainless steel appliances, tile countertops and extensive lower cabinets. There is a bedroom and full bathroom downstairs along with a den off the foyer. The entire second floor is dedicated to the primary bedroom. The primary bath has a walk in glass block shower, a whirlpool tub, vanity and private water closet. French doors lead out to a balcony deck perfect for watching sunrises. Vaulted ceiling and clerestory windows give the bedroom a grand feeling. Last, there is a walk in closet with built in cabinets. Radiant floor heating throughout and central air keep the home comfortable. A loft with shelving offers another place to read books, listen to music or use as a second office. There is a path that meanders down to a deck to watch the boats go by or to spot a bald eagle. The serene setting is located down a private road but not far from the Village of Saugerties, where you will find charming boutiques, galleries, restaurants and the newly restored Orpheum Theater. Enjoy the nearby towns of Hudson, Woodstock and Rhinebeck as well as many hiking trails in the Catskill Mountains. Or just enjoy your own piece of paradise at 54 Deak Lane.
