A charming uptown Kingston home offering a large covered front porch and off street parking. The home features original wood detailing, hardwood floors throughout most of the home and three original fireplaces to keep the home warm and cozy. The first floor apartment features well maintained and spacious living and dining rooms, complete with fireplaces, full of natural light and perfect for entertaining. Just off the dining room is the bedroom with french doors leading to the backyard, a full bath and an eat-in kitchen. A foyer with a classic wood staircase leads you to the second floor apartment, where the home continues to shine. Two nicely sized bedrooms with hardwood flooring and a beautiful den with an original fireplace, a full bath and an eat-in kitchen with a walk-in pantry. An original staircase leads to the walk-up attic with two rooms and a third full bath. The basement has good ceiling height, a washer and dryer and 200 amp electric service. The home is walking distance to Forsyth Park, Dietz Stadium, Trailways bus terminal and Uptown shops and eateries. There are endless possibilities with this property! Easily convert this to a single family living, or purchase for an investment rental, an owner-occupied property or an AirBnB property.
