This gracious 1902 home set on a quiet side street is a perfect blend of cozy and grand. A rocking chair front porch welcomes you to a front foyer complemented by molding, doors and knobs original to the home along with hardwood flooring just waiting to be revealed. A large family room, flooded with natural light, features long windows, 9 ft. original tin ceilings and a marble fireplace. A dining room for family gatherings, a kitchen with an antique double oven, cooktop, new dishwasher and a pantry. A breakfast room with a glass slider provides easy access to the covered back porch that spans the length of the home; the perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee overlooking the sprawling backyard. Upstairs you'll find four sunny bedrooms, a perfectly preserved main bathroom and access to a walk-up attic with ample storage. The full basement has a laundry room with a washer and dryer. Can be converted into a studio apartment or an office with approval. In walking distance to restaurants, shops and the close proximity to the Kingston Rail Trail. THIS HOME COMES WITH AN ADDITIONAL BUILDABLE LOT FOR A GARAGE, ANOTHER HOME OR A LARGER YARD.
