History and Charm is the best way to describe this 1922 Arts & Crafts Cottage located in the Byrdcliffe Historic District. Three generations of family, since 1959 have called this cottage home. Perched on a rock out cropping surrounded by established gardens with towering oak trees shading the landscape make this property a retreat just minutes from the Village Green of Woodstock. Upon entering from a stone floored porch is the living and dining room with a stone fireplace at one end and wood beams overhead. Two more doors and a wall of windows facing south overlook the gardens and stone terrace. A kitchen with pantry along with a bedroom or office space and full bath complete this floor. Upstairs, are 3 bedrooms including one with a second stone fireplace and access to a screened sleeping porch and a second full bath. Outside, amid the mature landscaping sits a three bay heated barn with workshop and storage above for those inclined or it could be massive studio, its original purpose in the early days of Arts Colony. Across the drive is an extended two car garage with a full height second floor with outside stairs for easy access. A property and town filled with history are you ready to add yours. Enjoy the shops, restaurants, markets and everything Woodstock has to offer. Only minutes to the NYS Thruway. This is a must see!
