Experience the charm of Rhinebeck, NY, in this historic country retreat which is geared toward a healthy living lifestyle. Originally a schoolhouse designed by the famed architect Alexander Jackson Davis in 1842, this home offers 2,016 sq. ft. of living space with central air conditioning and includes 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, all on 1.44 lush acres. Enjoy the scenic views of stunning meadows as far as the eye can see from the well-manicured grounds. Step into a foyer leading to a living room with a fireplace, a formal dining room, and a chef's kitchen open to a light-filled family room, all meticulously restored with original features preserved. Seasonal Rental option $15,000/month. The first-floor bedroom boasts a spa-like bathroom and features an organic mattress and bedding ensuring a restful and rejuvenating sleep. Upstairs, find the master bedroom and another bedroom, two full bathrooms, and a convertible home office, all furnished with eco-friendly materials, organic mattresses and bedding throughout. Outside, a patio leads to a detached 2-car garage with an attached light filled artist's studio, currently a media room, offering a peaceful space for creativity and relaxation. This retreat is minutes away from Amtrak, the Hudson river, shops, restaurants, a 4- star rated spa by Forbes travel , the Performing Arts Center, and the Fairgrounds, allowing you to enjoy the best of the Hudson Valley year-round or seasonally. Biking and hiking abound. Immerse yourself in a lifestyle of wellness and tranquility in this exceptional home.
