Originally constructed in 1920 (or late 1800s as lore would have it) as a small log cabin. The log wall in the living room is the original exterior of the cabin. This unique property harmoniously blends old-world charm with modern comforts, offering 1,346 sq ft of living space that exudes warmth and character. Step inside to discover a cozy country kitchen featuring stainless steel appliances, perfect for preparing family meals. Original wood flooring in the older parts of the home adds a touch of elegance and history. Outdoor living is at its best here, with a large deck and a screened-in porch off the living room providing tranquil spaces to enjoy the natural beauty that surrounds you. The property also boasts a screened-in gazebo in the garden area, ideal for outdoor dining or simply enjoying a quiet afternoon. For gardening enthusiasts, an established raised bed garden awaits your green thumb. Additionally, the presence of an old smokehouse adds a nostalgic feel to the expansive, level backyard, which ensures privacy and ample space for gatherings. The beauty of nature is ever-present as a tributary to the Esopus Creek meanders through the lower part of the 13.5 acre property, creating a peaceful and picturesque setting. This is the first time this home has been on the market in 60 years, making it a unique opportunity to own a piece of history while enjoying all the benefits of a well-cared-for property. Whether you're seeking a full-time residence or a tranquil retreat from city life, 4362 Atwood Rd offers a perfect blend of history, comfort, and natural beauty.
