This 1930s rustic cabin has been transformed into a Luxurious Modern Woodstock Log Home, just minutes from town yet completely private. The 3,390-square foot space, equipped with Smart Home features, has been lovingly updated. The charm of this home is evident from the moment you enter the vestibule. You are welcomed by radiant bluestone floors and inviting warm colors, creating an immediate sense of comfort. As you move into the open floor plan living area, the original stone double-sided fireplace becomes the focal point of the rustic chic living space. The modern and sleek kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring a 40" Viking stove with a water faucet, double wall unit ovens, a subzero refrigerator, new wide plank walnut floors, ample marble countertops with seating, and doors leading to the screened-in porch. Its counterpart, the living room, has kept the charm of the original home as it is the picture perfect log home setting complete with exposed beams and a dutch door leading out to the bluestone patio, hot tub and in-ground pool. There is plenty of natural light as the picture windows and skylights seem to bring all the beauty of nature right into the home. The Cathedral ceilings give this spacious home an even bigger feel and there is never a lack of room for entertaining any number of guests. A full bath (with custom concrete counters and bluestone), den, laundry/storage room and guest quarters (with private entrance) complete the lower level of this beauty. Ascend up the stairway, with custom steel railings, to find 3 well-sized guest rooms all with vaulted and beamed ceilings, a full bath and the luxurious primary suite. The Primary Suite offers a private sanctuary within the home, boasting a lavish bathroom with a deep soaking tub, a vanity area, walk-in closet, and wall closet just outside the bedroom door. The bedroom features soaring vaulted beamed ceilings, a custom-made and a private view of the mountains. The screened porch provides a serene spot for relaxation with views of the natural beauty and mountains beyond. In the summer, the fully equipped outdoor kitchen allows for enjoyable alfresco cooking and dining. The 10.43 acres of land include beautiful landscaping, hot tub, an in-ground pool, a stone fireplace, open flat land, and bluestone patios. The spacious, attached two-car garage features an EV charger for added convenience. This private oasis in nature also includes a separate studio with electric and heat, ideal for a workshop, yoga space, or artist studio. Enjoy complete privacy while being just minutes from the vibrant heart of Woodstock where you can explore eclectic shops, gourmet restaurants, cultural happenings, and diverse art forms.
