Perched atop a hill on historic Huguenot Street overlooking the 60-acre Nyquist Sanctuary, this mid-century modern property was inspired by Marcel Breuer and is affectionately called Walnut Ridge by its current owners. Walnut Ridge is a one of a kind property which consists of a main house, meticulously updated with luxury finishes, and a separate, freestanding studio building for guests, home office, or creative pursuits. The chef's kitchen with custom cabinets, marble counters, Wolf range, Leibherr refrigerator and Bosch dishwasher overlooks a native flower garden with mountain and creek views beyond. The primary bedroom and en-suite bathroom capture the same views, and includes custom closets, plenty of storage and a beautiful, marble walk-in shower and soaking tub. Walnut Ridge has over 2,000 square feet of interior space. Its 600 square feet of outdoor space includes a screened porch and a large, bluestone patio on an acre of land abutting the Wallkill Valley Rail Trail. Walnut Ridge is the ideal escape nestled within the village of New Paltz, a stone's throw from shops and restaurants.
