This immaculate two family home is located in the beautiful Catskill mountain community of Phoenicia and close to skiing, hiking and world class fishing. The bungalow style building is all on one level and has plenty of off street parking as well as a nice rear yard with shed. The two bedroom front apartment could be an owners unit and is very spacious and open feeling with new appliances in the kitchen which features wood cabinets and a granite countertop. The rear unit has one bedroom also with new appliances and a modern kitchen and bathroom. Both units have separate utilities and brand new heat pumps for heating and cooling. The building is connected to a community water system. This very nice property is vacant and easy to show!
