Welcome to The Waterfall House: One of the most unique architectural masterpieces in the area designed by the late Steve Mensch. This compound includes a main house with fully retractable glass walls, 3 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, a fireplace, and a media room. The main house layout is flipped with the primary bedroom below the main living space, two sleeping areas below the primary, and a media room on the lower level. The guest houses are connected by stone and elevated pathways providing a rare and romantic approach. Guest house 1 has a sleeping nook, full bathroom and covered porch overlooking the quiet river upstream. The second guest house has a kitchen, 2 bedrooms and water views. Finally, there is a 3 story studio building which was once used as the owners architecture and painting studio. The studio has a direct view of the waterfall and incredible architectural proportions. Located down a long private driveway 5 minutes to Rhinebeck Village and 7 minutes to Amtrak Train Station. Additional Information: ParkingFeatures:3 Car Detached,
