Location, location, location! Formerly the Rock Cliff House inn and tavern. This unique property offers an exceptional opportunity to transform a historic structure into a grand one- or two-family residence in the heart of High Falls, NY. Positioned at the edge of charming main street, this building is set on 5 beautifully wooded acres with dramatic rock outcroppings. Just 90 miles from Metro New York and short drives to New Paltz, Kingston, and Woodstock, this location is perfect for those seeking a walkable weekend retreat or a full-time residence with easy access to the best of the Hudson Valley. This property, steeped in history, awaits a complete renovation to restore its former glory, offering an inspiring canvas for those with a creative vision (and proper approvals). With its prime location and architectural charm, this building presents the rare chance to create a distinctive residence that blends modern comforts with timeless character. Celebrate the rich heritage of High Falls and the scenic beauty of the Hudson Valley, all while enjoying the convenience of being at the heart of a vibrant, welcoming community. Bring your dream to life in one of New York's most charming destinations!
