Rare Opportunity in the Historic Byrdcliffe Arts Colony, Woodstock, NY Discover this charming 1906 arts colony property in the heart of the renowned Byrdcliffe Arts Colony, a nationally recognized landmark of American arts and crafts heritage. This cozy one-story home offers 1,092 square feet with 2 bedrooms, 1.5 bathrooms, and a warm, inviting fireplace. The stone patio and seasonal mountain views enhance the natural beauty of the 2.9-acre property, nestled on a private, quiet road. In addition to the main residence, a beautifully designed modern studio offers space for art, music, guests, or solitude—ideal for creative inspiration. The home includes a Generac propane generator for convenience and reliability. The Byrdcliffe Arts Colony, established in 1902, is the oldest continuously operating arts and crafts colony in the United States. Originally conceived as a utopian retreat, the colony continues to bring together artists across disciplines. Architecturally, Byrdcliffe reflects the thoughtful simplicity of the Arts and Crafts movement with Stick and Eastlake design elements, creating a vibrant community set amid Woodstock's natural beauty. This is a rare chance to own a piece of history in this coveted neighborhood and be part of a community dedicated to creativity, nature, and craftsmanship. Bring your contractor and your great ideas.
