Welcome to 20 Campbell Street in the picturesque town of Rosendale. Discover this exquisite restoration with approximately a 880 sq ft of new construction of this modern-style Colonial home, where timeless elegance meets contemporary luxury. Every detail has been carefully crafted in this three-bedroom, two and 1/2 bathroom residence, which has been completely restored from top to bottom. A charming wrap-around deck surrounds the home, inviting you to relax and enjoy the serene setting. The heart of this home is the breathtaking kitchen, designed in a striking black-and-white palette and featuring top-of-the-line stainless steel GE appliances, and Schluter Ditra heated rich dark slate tile floors. The bathrooms are unique works of art that also feature heated floors: the first bathroom exudes luxury with white floor-to-ceiling tiles, gold accents, and vaulted ceilings, while the second offers a more natural aesthetic, showcasing a blue hued tiled shower, a floating dual-sink vanity, and subtle gold finishes. Beautifully gleaming 3/4 solid oak hardwood floors flow throughout the home, complemented by neutral, tasteful color choices that create a warm and inviting ambiance. Additional features include Delta fixtures, New HVAC system, fresh air system, Marvin Wood Windows, a stainless steel high tension wire handrail system, Blue Stone patio, and spray foam insulation. Located in the charming town of Rosendale, this property provides a stunning view of the railroad rail trail and trestle. Close to transit routes, the quaint village, and a variety of local shops. This home offers a perfect balance of style, comfort, and accessibility in a beautiful setting
