A delightful retreat with tons of sunlight and original charm, this cottage is brimming with character and is only 5 minutes to Woodstock's vibrant main street! Part of the original Maverick artist colony that helped define Woodstock as an arts community, this home has many nods to its creative history. The original wood beams and stone fireplace both come from materials gathered from the surrounding land and add to the cozy and comfortable feeling throughout the home. The bedrooms are on either side of the house with an open kitchen and living space in between anchored by the warming wood burning stove. A charming den or study runs along the back side of the house and leads up to the cozy loft overlooking the living room. A custom wooden dining table has been built around the original wood beams to the house elegantly pairing contemporary—and local—craftsmanship with the original charm of the home. Skylights fill this home with natural sunlight and the whole property feels light and bright. Nestled into the rocky outcroppings of the woods beyond, this half acre property packs a big punch with a lovely front yard, a beautiful blue stone patio, and an impressive treehouse—a suitable escape for all ages! The studio outbuilding is spacious with heat and electricity in place, and is a perfect auxiliary space to the main house. It's easy to enjoy all that the area has to offer being a quick 5 minutes from Woodstock's main street with its vast array of options for dining and shopping. Belleayre and Hunter are both under 40 minutes away and you have got all the beauty of the Catskill mountains right outside your front door. All this and only 95 miles to the GWB!
