Year Built:	1840

Rare opportunity to own a Vintage Farmhouse in the Hudson Valley. A little tidbit for you history buffs: 588 was the first home on the street and built for the foreman of the cement operation. The 1810 structure is still intact, same floors, same layout. Downstairs is a cozy living room leading to a well equipped country kitchen and dining area. Laundry is nearby for easy living. Relax in front of the cozy fireplace, enjoy a meal prepared in the charming country kitchen and watch nature through a wall of glass. Upstairs you will find a loft area, and two large bedrooms. Recent Updates include new bathroom, new dishwasher and new high efficiency furnace. A home in immaculate condition with beautiful, 200 year old, wide board floors welcomes you. The backyard is completely private, with perennial flowers appearing through the season, like magic. Location is amazing...10 minutes to Kingston, New Paltz with their happening restaurants, shops and galleries. Just minutes to the Wallkill Valley Rail Trail offering endless opportunities for walking and biking. This is a rare opportunity to come home to the country in our competitive market.
