Square Footage:	0
Taxes:	$4,727
Year Built:	1800

Sitting on nearly an acre of serene landscape, this charming 1800s stone home offers tranquility on a picturesque, quiet road in Old Hurley. Currently a one-bedroom residence, it also features a versatile flex room in the basement with its own private entrance—ideal for a home office, guest space, or studio—already plumbed for an additional bathroom. Inside, the living room exudes warmth and character, with custom built-in shelves and a beautiful pellet stove. Original wide-plank hardwood floors enhance the home's historic charm, evoking the feel of a quaint English cottage. The kitchen has been updated with all-new appliances, while new mini splits ensure year-round comfort. A new roof and plywood decking were added in 2020 for peace of mind. Outside, an elevated deck, shed, and fire pit invite you to enjoy the wide, level, and wooded lot. Ideally situated just minutes from Kingston, Woodstock, and New Paltz—and under 95 miles from NYC and the GWB—this home offers the perfect balance of relaxation and accessibility. With low taxes, modern updates, and historic character, this unique property is a rare find. The former Twin Lakes Resort is on the neighboring lot and the structure behind the house is the vacant office for the resort. See photo of the parcel.
