Back in 1924, this stately Tudor home was the envy of many. Now, all the modern conveniences have been completed without compromising the integrity. Amazing woodwork, french doors, built-ins etc. More property than most, close to an acre, all fenced in with gardens, shrubbery & mature trees. Enjoy that country feel but the convenience of the Village with the ability to stroll to shops, theater, restaurants, galleries etc. The first floor offers a very expansive Living room dining/ room combo which includes a fireplace with an insert that provides warmth quickly. A beautiful gourmet kitchen, with a six-stool island, pull outs, pantry & high-end appliances. French doors off the kitchen open to a large deck, great for entertaining or to enjoy morning coffee to take in the beautiful yard, so peaceful and serene, a bird watcher's paradise. A separate entrance leads to a professional office area that can be changed into an apartment with a special use permit. Second floor has three bedrooms and two fully remodeled bathrooms. One of the bedrooms offers a private bath, reading room and walk-in closet. The third floor is AWESOME! Totally finished to use as you wish. Whole house generator & water purifier in place. Municipal water & sewer, central air, Natural gas heat., Laundry on main level and basement....This gorgeous home is Located diagonally across from Seamon Park and is close to HITS.. Take a bike ride to the lighthouse, walk your pup, make your life enjoyable and stress free.
