This two-bedroom, one-and-a-half-bath home offers great investor potential and the possibility to easily convert it back to its original three-bedroom layout. The main living area spans 1,183 square feet and features hardwood floors throughout, with additional hardwood beneath the carpeted areas. There is also a 1,035-square-foot lower level in need of a full renovation, full of potential for extra living space or other possibilities. Sliding glass doors open to a screened-in porch that overlooks the inground pool, offering a private outdoor space. The property also includes an attached one-car garage for added convenience. It is connected to both municipal water and sewer, providing reliable utilities. Located in the sought-after Barclay Heights area, just a short walk from the Esopus Nature Preserve. Sold as-is, this property may not qualify for a mortgage, making it an excellent option for cash buyers or those looking for a renovation project with strong potential.
