Charming 1940 Cape Cod on 1.2 acres nestled on a peaceful dead-end street. This classic 4 bedroom, 2 bath home offers timeless character and endless potential. This home boasts beautiful beamed ceilings, two cozy fireplaces one in the living room and another in the family room. Enjoy serene view from the screened in porch while enjoying your morning coffee or having a beverage. Watch the kids sled in the winter, tend to your fenced in vegetable garden or simply unwind while listening to the birds and soaking in nature. You could add a woodstove to one of the fireplaces for alternative heat. While it could benefit from some updates, the craftsmanship of this 1940 gem shines through. The house and garage are being sold as-is, offering a fantastic opportunity to make it your own. This home has community water through Rolling Meadows Water Company. Located close to Uptown Kingston. Walkable to the Elementary School, Historic District of Hurley, Rail Trail, Hurley Library, Stewarts and Hurley Mountain Inn. Your location is convenient to Stone Ridge, Woodstock, Kingston and many wonderful restaurants and fun activities. This home is full of charm . Don't miss this opportunity to own a home with character, space, convenience and endless possibilities! Make an appointment today!
