Welcome to this charming 1877 fisherman's cottage—a rare blend of history, artistry, and natural beauty nestled in the heart of Kingston. Tucked along the serene Rondout Creek, this one-bedroom, one and a half bathroom treasure is the perfect weekend escape, full time residence or cozy rental opportunity. Step inside and discover original hardwood floors, exposed brick, hand-hewn beams, and tin ceilings that celebrate the home's rich past. The updated kitchen features custom cabinetry and a beautiful eat-in kitchen thoughtfully designed for quiet mornings and memorable meals. One of the home's most unique features is the custom-built daybed on the porch—perfectly positioned for lazy afternoon naps, with built-in storage for your favorite vinyl records, books, or cozy blankets. Outdoors, an award-winning bluestone patio takes center stage—honored for its exceptional masonry and artful use of stone. A nearby barn offers storage and could easily be transformed into an artist's studio or creative retreat. With nearby hiking trails, the beauty of the Rondout Creek, and all of Kingston's vibrant energy just minutes away, this lovingly restored home is both a peaceful hideaway and a piece of Hudson Valley history.
