Invest in your future with this two family Colonial home which has a private country feel. With almost an acre of land on a quiet country road, this money maker is only a 3 minute drive from the college campus. Here is a great opportunity for an owner/investor to have your tenant help with the mortgage. Or maximize your profits with an existing net income of over 40K and there is still plenty of upswing potential. There is expansive off street parking and a large yard for tenants to enjoy the peace and tranquility that most folks are looking for. Both units offer 3 good sized bdrms plus a den and laundry. Located near Main St. offering convenient access to all amenities for every day living. Close proximity to recreational activities like golfing, hiking trails, state parks and Mohonk Mountain. Nearby restaurants and an active night life also make this an attractive property to own.
