This fully rented four-family property offers an exceptional opportunity for both first-time investors and seasoned portfolio builders. Each of the four units features 1 bedroom and 1 bathroom, delivering consistent income with a current Net Operating Income (NOI) of 65k. This building is being sold along with two neighboring income-producing rentals—385 and 393 Main Street—creating the rare chance to acquire a high-performing investment cluster on the same block. Located in the heart of Rosendale, this property is just minutes from the vibrant towns of New Paltz and Kingston—making it highly desirable for renters seeking easy access to local restaurants, shops, and transit options while enjoying small-town charm. Whether you're looking to start or expand your real estate portfolio, this turnkey property provides strong returns and long-term value in one of Ulster County's most dynamic rental markets.
