Historic barn styling and colorful contemporary style create a wholly unique vibe at 3639 Atwood Road. The 4 BD, 2 BA's distinctive gambrel outline pays homage to the Hudson Valley region's agrarian history and harmonizes perfectly with its serene 6.3-acre wooded setting. But inside, you'll find a take on country living that's FRESH! The showstopping great room features 22-foot ceilings adorned with exquisite tongue-and-groove cedar and magnificent sapele beams—a rare African hardwood prized for its rich, distinctive character. A wall of windows is accented by stained-glass transoms which are particularly visible from the second-story landing. Natural light streams into the open concept living and dining areas creating an ever-changing canvas of Hudson Valley beauty across the seasons. When it's cool, an efficient pellet stove fills the soaring space with warmth. The home's position on the acreage is private while its position on the map, in the midst of some of the most charming small Upstate towns (Stone Ridge, Rosendale, High Falls, Marbletown, and Accord), the Catskill Mountains, the Ashokan Reservoir, and the Shawangunk Mountains means that life here can be full of friends, fun, culture and outdoor adventures. The gourmet kitchen pairs timeless granite countertops with solid hickory cabinetry, complemented by two expansive pantries that offer exceptional storage for the culinary enthusiast. Upstairs, a luxurious 650-square-foot primary suite features dual walk-in closets, a freshly updated full bath, and additional storage spaces. Outdoor living is equally elevated here with a newly constructed deck, a covered porch, and a private enclosed hot tub. In keeping with the contemporary design, the property's exceptional infrastructure includes a whole-house generator ensuring uninterrupted power, a comprehensive security system, and what many consider the crown jewel: an oversized heated garage designed to accommodate a pickup truck with plow plus two additional vehicles—this sort of storage/workspace (with heat!) is a true rarity in mountain properties. Come home to sophisticated contemporary living in a beautiful Upstate setting!
