Rebuilt with care and vision, this 4-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom home on 2 private, wooded acres feels like a brand-new home—just minutes from both Woodstock and Saugerties. Tucked away from the road for total privacy yet close to shopping, dining, outdoor adventures, and the NY Thruway, this move-in-ready gem blends peaceful living with unmatched convenience. A full head-to-toe renovation has completely transformed the property—from the new roof over the main house to all-new electrical wiring with an upgraded panel, updated plumbing, and fresh finishes throughout. The home was taken down to the studs, reimagined with all-new sheetrock, and finished with beautiful wide-plank wood floors and elegant tile in the kitchen and baths. Inside, natural light fills the open-plan living and dining spaces, while the bright and functional kitchen features ceramic tile floors, generous counter space, and easy flow to the dining area and back deck—perfect for hosting or quiet mornings with coffee. The den offers a cozy fireplace and a quiet place to relax or read. Every bathroom has been stylishly redone with new vanities, toilets, and contemporary tub/shower installations. The spacious primary suite is a private retreat, and the additional three bedrooms offer flexibility for guests, work-from-home setups, or hobbies. Additional features include: A welcoming covered front porch Attached 2-car garage with interior access Mudroom with storage and utility space Thoughtful layout that balances flow and functionality With top-to-bottom upgrades, modern finishes, and a warm, inviting feel, this home is an incredible full-time residence, weekend escape, or investment property in one of the Hudson Valley's most desirable settings.
