Just five minutes from the heart of Rhinebeck, this late 1700's center-hall Colonial is a storybook retreat: peaceful, picturesque, and perfectly appointed, offering a true taste of Hudson Valley living. Set on a dreamy stretch of land embraced by meadows, old-growth trees, and the soft hum of nature, the home invites you to slow down and savor life's quieter moments. Think slow mornings with coffee on the patio, long candlelit dinners, and summer days drifting between sun and shade beside the heated gunite pool or a peaceful afternoon by your own private swimming pond. Inside, two cozy sitting rooms, each anchored by a wood-burning fireplace, flow effortlessly into a generous dining room and an open gourmet kitchen, fully equipped for your Rhinebeck Farmers Market finds. A Bösendorfer piano invites music into the space, whether you're playing or simply enjoying. Upstairs, four spacious bedrooms offer restful retreat, including a private primary suite tucked into its own back wing. A dedicated home office makes it easy to work remotely, while 2.5 bathrooms provide ample space for family or guests. Outside, a bluestone patio sets the stage for al fresco meals, golden hour drinks, and stargazing well into the night. The home is fully equipped with fresh linens, plush towels (including pool towels), a well-stocked kitchen, high-speed internet, and all utilities. Weekly cleaning and laundry service are included, so you can simply arrive and unwind. An idyllic escape just moments from Rhinebeck's vibrant village center, where farm-to-table dining, art, antiques, and culture await.
