Perched atop a picturesque knoll this expansive colonial home boasts sweeping views of the Shawangunk mountain and surrounding landscape. The house was custom built on 2.2 acres by Toll Brothers, known for their high-quality workmanship and luxurious finishes in Mountain View at Gardiner. A dramatic two-story entry hall welcomes you with elegance and scale, drawing you into a sundrenched living room with a gas burning fireplace and soaring two story windows that flood the space with natural light. Timeless architectural details, generous proportions and a seamless blend of classic charm and modern comfort make this home a true standout. Just off the main hall you'll find a cozy sitting area or study and a private office space ideal for remote work or focused creativity. A spacious formal dining room provides the perfect setting for entertaining family and friends. The open floor plan flows effortlessly into an eat-in-kitchen with generous counter space. This inviting layout is ideal for everyday living. The main floor primary bedroom suite is luxurious retreat and features a spa inspired bathroom with a large walk-in closet. This thoughtfully designed space offers privacy and comfort. Upstairs there are three generously sized bedrooms, one with its own en-suite full bathroom providing convenience for family or guests. The two additional bedrooms share one full bathroom. An additional room completes the second floor perfectly as a media room, entertainment space, game room or playroom. The dual staircases add both style and elegance, allowing easy access from multiple points inside the home. There is an attached two car garage and large basement. Located in an area known for its scenic beauty, farm to table restaurants and wineries and minutes to the town of New Paltz.
