Nestled in the scenic folds of Saugerties, NY, this hidden gem offers an unparalleled opportunity for investors or builders seeking to create a serene weekend retreat. Encompassing over 11 lush acres with mountain vistas, the landscape serves as a blank canvas for crafting a dream escape or a custom residence. While the existing 1870s home awaits a visionary's touch, being in need of a complete rehabilitation, its storied walls may also inspire a fresh start with a new build, capitalizing on the private and secluded setting. Take advantage of the great location, a stone's throw from the vibrant communities of both Saugerties and Woodstock, and just minutes from the convenience of NYS Thruway exit 20. This property promises a blend of rural charm and accessibility, a rare find that beckons a future as a tranquil haven or potentially lucrative investment in one of New York's most idyllic locales.
