This charming 2-bedroom cottage, situated just under a mile from the vibrant village of New Paltz and close to the Empire Trail, offers great potential for renovation. The home is set on a large, level lot, providing ample space for expansion or outdoor activities. Inside, the cottage retains its classic appeal but is in need of updates to bring it into modern standards. The layout includes two cozy bedrooms, a living area, and a basic kitchen, all of which could be transformed with a little vision and work. The surrounding property offers peaceful privacy while being within easy reach of the shops, restaurants, and outdoor attractions of New Paltz, making it a perfect opportunity for someone looking to create their ideal retreat. This is a Fannie Mae Homepath Property.
