Discover your perfect country retreat on over 22 private acres conveniently located between New Paltz and Kingston. This turnkey home features soaring ceilings and an open floor plan, showcasing beaming Brazilian hardwood floors throughout. The modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances, granite countertops and solid wood cabinets flow seamlessly into the dining and living areas with a grand wall of windows that look out to woodland views. The wood-burning stove provides cozy warmth for winter evenings and central air ensures warm weather comfort. The main level includes a primary suite, a second spacious bedroom, and a full bath with laundry. Above, you'll find a versatile loft offering flexibility--perfect as an additional bedroom, office, or studio space with an elevated treehouse feel. Down to the lower level--extra-high ceilings offer tremendous potential for additional living space and leads out to the spacious garage with room for 2 cars plus bikes, outdoor gear and workshop space. Outside you have a completely private sanctuary where the naturalized landscape offers effortless beauty and endless possibilities for wildlife observation and quiet contemplation, or a blank slate to create--maybe a veggie garden in addition to the blueberry bushes? Recent upgrades and thoughtful infrastructure add lasting value and peace of mind: a new front porch and a fresh coat of stain on the entire house give a crisp, refreshed look; the standby generator ensures uninterrupted comfort; and modular construction on a Superior Wall foundation means the home was crafted with exceptional quality control. Additional features include an on-demand hot water heater (meaning endless hot water), well-maintained mechanicals, a roof with many years of life ahead, and a freshly graveled driveway. Everything here is in great shape and ready for you--no projects, no delays, just move in and enjoy. This is truly a place to settle in, spread out, and feel at home from day one.
