Serene and well-appointed, this raised ranch has been carefully and thoughtfully updated. Clean lines and open spaces with large windows and gleaming floors all create a home that is easy to enjoy. From the kitchen with family friendly island to open dining and living space, everything is light and fuss free. Upstairs you have three bedrooms and two full baths with a screened in porch leading out to the seating area and beside the salt water pool. Imagine how you will spend your summer days and evenings! All of this is surrounded by established plantings and towering pines. Downstairs there is a generous family room with a pellet stove and an additional bedroom and full bath. From here you can easily dash right out to the car to bring in shopping and the like. Just one block off DeWitt Mill Rd, you are only minutes away from the enticements of Uptown Kingston. Sellers have spared no expense to update: new liner pool (2021), complete renovation of master bathroom (2022), water treatment system (2019), new laminate flooring in three bedrooms (2020), renovation of lower level including new vinyl floors (2024), whole house generator (2022) WiFi enabled Cummins 20kW with 500 gallon tank (2020), new programmable thermostats for all baseboard in the house including WiFi enabled Google thermostat for living room and family room plus Google thermostat for heat pump (2022). New washing machine, dryer, kitchen stove, sump pump, well pump, heater water, dishwasher and microwave.
