Take advantage of this sweet buildable lot in the heart of Rosendale. Located in a charming residential neighborhood above the Rondout Creek, this .18 acre parcel is already connected to municipal water and sewer. The existing 3BR/1BA ranch, while it has been a beloved family home for generations, has fallen into disrepair. It will most likely need to be removed in order to build a small, efficient dream home. Let your imagination run wild! The property has two level sites with a small slope between- perfect conditions for a walkout basement and deck. The private backyard is a canvas for creative landscape design. Plenty of room for a fire pit, hot tub & gardens. There's always something to enjoy within walking distance as well. Walk to Main Street with its plethora of tasty local restaurants & quirky shops. Explore miles of hiking trails around Williams Lake. Take a jog or bike ride on the nearby Wallkill Rail Trail. Visit the pool, playground, tennis & basketball courts at Rosendale Recreation Center just down the street. A convenient mid-point between Kingston and New Paltz, Rosendale offers everything an upstate town can provide: beauty, community, food, music & more. Estate sale as is. Cash or construction loan only.
