Welcome to 214 Lucas Avenue, a solid brick Cape that's truly move-in ready and beautifully reimagined with a designer's eye for functionality and effortless living. Every inch of this home has been thoughtfully updated while preserving its original charm, creating a perfect blend of classic character and modern comfort. There are three inviting ways to arrive: step through the charming front door into the light-filled living room, take the side entry into the dreamy screened-in porch, or enter via the lower-level laundry area straight from the garage—ideal for everyday convenience. Hardwood floors flow throughout, setting the tone for a warm, cohesive space. At the heart of the home is a stunning, fully remodeled kitchen featuring brand-new cabinetry, gleaming stone countertops, a center island with breakfast bar, and a delightful vintage corner china cabinet that nods to the home's history. Step right out from the kitchen onto the screened-in side porch—your new favorite spot for al fresco dining. With stenciled flooring, a ceiling fan, and exposed brick wall, this space offers ambiance and comfort in equal measure. Two bedrooms and a full bath complete the main level, while the spacious loft above serves multiple purposes—guest bedroom, home office, fitness zone, or creative retreat. Outside, you'll find a newly blacktopped driveway, handsome paver patio, stone walls, storage shed, fresh landscaping, and a dedicated grilling area—all designed for easy maintenance and outdoor enjoyment. Located within walking distance to Uptown Kingston, the park, bus station, great eateries, and the beloved Farmers Market, this home is a rare find. Just bring your toothbrush—everything else is already here waiting for you.
