Charming two-bedroom cottage, tucked along a country road, just minutes from the heart of Stone Ridge, NY. This sunny and well maintained two-bedroom, one-bath cottage offers a perfect blend of charm, comfort, and convenience in the Hudson Valley. Step inside to find an inviting eat-in kitchen anchored by a cozy woodstove—ideal for gathering on cool evenings and adding warmth and character to the home. The bright, open living room is bathed in natural light and flows seamlessly onto a terrace overlooking the lawn and peaceful woods. This is the perfect spot to savor morning coffee, spend a lazy afternoon with a good book, or enjoy dinner under the stars. Two bedrooms and a full bath make single-level living both comfortable and practical. Thoughtful design and smart use of space maximize every square foot. Upstairs, a generous walk-up attic offers excellent flexible space—currently serving as both storage and a quiet reading nook, but full of potential for future creative use. Outside, a lush lawn is bordered by natural woodland, offering beauty throughout the seasons. The detached two-car garage provides ample room for vehicles, tools, or a workshop—and with its generous size, it could easily be transformed into an artist's studio, creative workspace, or hobby area. Whether you envision tending the lawn, entertaining friends, or simply unwinding in nature, the outdoor spaces are as inviting as the interiors. Perfectly situated for exploring the Hudson Valley and Catskills, this home is a short drive to the stunning Ashokan Reservoir and an easy drive to historic and charming towns such as Woodstock, Kingston, New Paltz, Accord, and Rhinebeck. From here, you can easily access farm-to-table restaurants, hiking trails, local markets, and cultural attractions. Popular local destinations such as Inness, Westwind Orchard, Arrowwood Farm, Wildflower Farms Resort, and Mohonk Mountain House are a short drive—whether it's gardening, hiking, or antique shopping, this area is full of exciting things to do.
