This Woodstock beauty is set on 1.6 private acres on the very desirable John Joy Road. Step into the gracious entry and first notice the abundant light streaming into the spacious living room from the large picture windows. There is a fireplace for cozy evenings at home which can be enjoyed from either the living area or the large dining area which currently seats 8 with room to spare. The kitchen is a cook's delight with stainless steel appliances, lots of counter space, and loads of storage! Go up a few steps to the bedroom level which has a comfortable full bath and three bedrooms. One bedroom has extensive built-ins and is used for storage. The lower level has a very large entertainment room with built-in bookcases at one end. There is an additional space currently used as an en suite guest room with full bath. This would also be an ideal studio space or home office. The lower level leads to a cozy screened-in porch overlooking the back garden. Outdoors you will find a large private garden with tons of space for you to plant your favorite perennials! On the side of the house is a one car detached garage with a carport and a whole house stand-by generator for peace of mind. This home is just a few minutes outside of Woodstock's main drag with tons to do and see. Go hiking on the Ashokan Trail, pop into Kingston for dinner, or Saugerties for live music. It is a short distance to the thruway for ease of travel and just under two hours to NYC. Come home to Woodstock.
