Year Built:	1984

Nestled on a full acre of beautifully landscaped grounds, this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers timeless charm with thoughtful updates. Built in 1984, the property is bordered on one side by state land, providing rare privacy and a natural setting that's sure to appeal to those seeking peace and a connection to the outdoors. A dramatic 24-foot cathedral-ceiling foyer with wood flooring throughout welcomes you inside, setting the tone for the home's rustic elegance. The sunlit eat-in kitchen features hand-painted tiles, butcher block counters, recessed lighting, and stained glass accents, a perfect blend of artistry and functionality. The open dining and living area, complete with beamed ceilings and a wood-burning fireplace, creates an inviting space for gatherings. Upstairs, a cozy sitting area with built-in bookshelves makes an ideal reading nook, while the primary suite is a true retreat with its skylight and Romeo & Juliet balcony overlooking the grounds. Outdoor living is equally inviting, with lush landscaping, a bluestone patio and a brick outdoor oven perfect for entertaining or enjoying quiet evenings at home. All this just 5 minutes to Kingston and only 10 minutes to Woodstock or Saugerties, offering the perfect balance of tranquility and convenience. This home is truly a must see
