Nestled within the peaceful enclave of Sepasco Village, this inviting 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers over 2,100 square feet of warm and comfortable living space on private roads just minutes from the Village of Rhinebeck. The property combines rustic charm with timeless character, featuring beautiful hardwood floors throughout and accents of natural pine on select walls and ceilings that add a cozy, cabin-like feel. The first floor offers a versatile layout ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. There's a dedicated office or library perfect for remote work or quiet reading, a formal dining room with ample natural light, a well-equipped kitchen with generous cabinet and counter space, a full bath, and a spacious living room centered around a wood stove—perfect for those crisp Hudson Valley evenings. Upstairs, an open loft area with vaulted ceilings and an elegant chandelier provides a dramatic architectural touch and a comfortable space for lounging or creative pursuits. The large primary bedroom is filled with natural light from a skylight and offers a serene retreat, while two additional bedrooms provide plenty of room for family or guests. A full bath completes the second level. Outdoor living is equally enjoyable, with a large front deck ideal for relaxing or entertaining, a private yard with space for gardening, and a shed for extra storage. The property is just a short stroll to a private community beach on scenic Lake Sepasco, where residents can swim, kayak, or simply unwind by the water.
