Welcome to 12 Zandhoek Road in Historic Hurley, a truly one-of-a-kind custom-built bluestone home showcasing craftsmanship and character at every turn. Constructed with quarried stone from the Ashokan and featuring striking 18-inch-thick walls, this residence offers both beauty and enduring strength. Inside, you'll find milled knotty oak hardwood floors, a living room with a woodstove set in a charming fireplace surrounded by custom built-ins, and a sun-drenched three-season room with bluestone flooring and knotty Cedar walls overlooking the backyard. Designed for flexibility, the first floor includes a bedroom and full bath for convenient one-level living, along with a formal dining room accented by a built-in corner cabinet and a spacious eat-in kitchen with abundant cabinetry, perfect for any home chef. Upstairs are two generously sized bedrooms and a second full bathroom. The recently remodeled finished lower level, complete with a fireplace, offers even more living space. Set on a level ¾-acre parcel graced with mature maple, magnolia, cherry, and Japanese maple trees, the property also includes a barn with two stalls, cement flooring, and its own separate electric panel. Additional features include a garage currently used as a laundry room that can be easily converted back. All of this is just minutes from the rail trail and only five minutes to Uptown Kingston. A rare gem in the Hudson Valley, this gorgeous home is not to be missed!
