Located at the end of a private Culdesac in an Olde Hurley neighborhood is this large split level ranch. Currently a 4 bedroom 2.5 bath home it could easily have more bedrooms or an access apartment. There is a separate street level entrance to 2 good sized rooms and bath with another finished room a half level down from that. On the main level you enter into a foyer with french doors to the livingroom/diningroom. There is an extra large eat-in kitchen and a cozy family room with fireplace. Don't miss the stained glass flourishes throughout the home. Doors out to a deck which faces the private woods. A half level up are 3 bedrooms and bath and then a few steps from that is another large bedroom. This home is surrounded by woods on 3 sides and is an easy walk, bike ride or drive to the Hurley rail trail which goes all the way to the uptown Kingston stockade district. Easy access to everthing.
