Just steps from the scenic Walkill Valley Rail Trail, 243 Whiteport blends Victorian character with modern updates. With four bedrooms and two full baths across three levels, this move-in ready home offers space, light, and classic Hudson Valley charm. The welcoming front entry opens to a bright, freshly painted living room with a signature bay window. The updated kitchen and dining area create an inviting flow that feels perfect for gatherings or everyday living. A first-floor laundry room and full bath add modern convenience to the home's traditional layout. Upstairs, you'll find three comfortable bedrooms filled with natural light. A large picture-frame window at the rear captures peaceful, wooded views that reflect the idyllic beauty quintessential of the Hudson Valley. A second full bathroom serves this level. The third floor offers a flexible fourth bedroom or studio space with comfortable ceiling height, ideal for creative work, guests, or a home office. Recent upgrades bring lasting comfort and reliability, including a new roof installed in 2022, a well pump replaced in 2021, energy-efficient mini splits for heating and air conditioning added in 2021, a 200-amp electric service, and dual 275-gallon oil tanks. Outside, a detached barn provides a versatile space for a workshop, studio, or storage (note: not suitable for parking vehicles). Across the street, just steps away the 22-mile Walkill Valley Rail Trail invites you to bike, jog, or simply enjoy the natural beauty that defines this region. Located near Kingston, Rosendale, New Paltz, Mohonk Preserve, and the Shawangunk Mountains, and just 90 minutes from New York City, The Rail Trail Victorian offers the best of both worlds: the grace of a bygone era beautifully updated for modern living.
