Introducing Knickerbocker Farm, an elegant circa 1790 farmhouse overlooking rolling meadows, a tranquil pond, and two antique barns, on over 12 acres, just three miles from the heart of Rhinebeck. Enter through the classic front hall with its graceful staircase and sense of history. The living, dining, and sitting rooms are graciously proportioned, each featuring 10-foot ceilings, decorative crown and base moldings, marble fireplaces, and beautifully preserved wide-board floors that flow throughout the home. Pocket doors connect the living room and sitting rooms, adding both charm and flexibility. Sunlight pours into the corner sunroom from the east and south, while the eat-in kitchen, anchored by a striking stone fireplace, offers a warm gathering space for casual dining. French doors open to a mahogany back deck, perfect for enjoying the sweeping pastoral views. A first-floor bedroom and full bath allow for guest accommodations or one-level living. Upstairs, four sunlit bedrooms include two spacious rooms, a cozy smaller bedroom, and one tucked away in its own wing, as well as two full baths. A full walk-up attic provides generous storage. The stately front porch spans the home's facade, inviting quiet moments of relaxation and connection to the landscape. Knickerbocker Farm is both enchanting and timeless - elegantly designed yet comfortably to live in, with thoughtful details and sweet nooks throughout. A true Hudson Valley treasure.
