Original carriage house nestled in the center of Rhinebeck Village is waiting for your vision. Set back from the road with a beautiful specimen magnolia tree, this converted two-family home provides a unique opportunity to restore this gem. The house has a new roof (2023) providing a start to renovations. Village approval for the driveway is in place and site plans have been created. Located just two blocks from Rhinebeck's celebrated farmers market, restaurants, and boutique shops, this carriage house sits on .33 acres in one of the Hudson Valley's most sought-after historic villages. The property includes an 19th century blacksmith's open barn, offering endless possibilities for studio space, storage, or future restoration. The adjoining property is also available, allowing the chance to create a private village compound. Just minutes to the Rhinecliff Amtrak Station and less than two hours to NYC, this offering perfectly captures Rhinebeck's timeless appeal and convenience.
