Located in one of Hurley's most sought-after neighborhoods, this lovingly maintained 4-bedroom, 2-bath Cape-style home offers comfort, character, and opportunity. The main living area features hardwood floors and a functional layout designed for everyday living. The sun porch at the back of the home provides a bright and inviting space that overlooks the level backyard, ideal for outdoor gatherings, gardening, or play. An oversized detached two-car garage offers generous space for parking, storage, or a workshop, adding both functionality and versatility to the property. The full unfinished basement provides ample room for storage or future expansion. While the home has been well cared for over the years, it's ready for your personal updates and modern touches. Conveniently situated close to Kingston's Uptown district, shopping, dining, and local parks and trails, this charming home combines peaceful living with easy access to all the Hudson Valley has to offer.
