Come to the country to enjoy this spacious mid-century home on 12+ acres. Large and bright with lots of upgrades makes living easy. The efficient galley kitchen was renovated just 3 years ago with all new appliances and everything. It opens to the dining area and through to the large living room. High windows bring light and warmth. The bedrooms are the same with lots of windows and space. The primary bedroom is huge and even has a door to an adorable Juliet balcony. Relax on the long sunroom the length of the south side overlooking lawn and gardens. The basement has lots of space for workshop and storage. The furnace and oil tank are nearly new, only months old. And the barn. The large, well-designed, three-story barn has a two-car garage on the ground level, and storage on the second level as well as in the rafters. Great as a studio or a workshop as well. The land goes up the hill in back of the property, a great buffer. The owner is still in the process of clearing it out and is planning to sell it "As Is." Come and see it today.
