NEW PRICE! Motivated Seller — Bring Your Offers Perched confidently above Kingston's vibrant Rondout District, this classic 1931 three-bedroom home now arrives back on the market with a compelling new price and a clear invitation to buyers who value character, convenience, and instant lifestyle upgrades. Step inside to an open, light-filled first floor wrapped in hardwood floors, clean architectural lines, and a cozy living room anchored by a masonry fireplace—a quiet invitation for winter evenings and good company. The kitchen and dining area flow comfortably for both weekday living and weekend gatherings. Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms and a full bath offer a simple, functional layout ready for your personal touches. Out back, a generous fenced yard and spacious deck create your own pocket of outdoor calm—morning coffee, late-summer dinners, or a hammock under the treetops. The detached 1-car garage is perfect for storage, tinkering, or adventure gear. This location is pure Kingston gold: moments from the waterfront, acclaimed restaurants, galleries, and the beloved Greenline Trail, with city lights winking just beyond the treetops. Recent updates (approx. 7 years ago) offer a solid foundation for buyers who want comfort and opportunity in one smart package. Why Buyers Will Love It 🌿 Bright, open living spaces 🔥 Wood-burning fireplace 🚲 Close to the Greenline Trail & Rondout waterfront 🛠 Detached garage + storage 🌇 Elevated lot with seasonal views 📍 In the heart of one of Kingston's hottest neighborhoods
