Lovingly cared for by its original owner, this home has been the centerpiece for decades of gatherings, celebrations, and everyday moments. You are welcomed into a light filled living room featuring a beautiful brick fireplace and huge picture window. The adjacent dining room brings the warmth of holiday dinners in Winter and in warmer months its sliding doors lead to an expansive deck. Enjoy summertime barbecues overlooking a private wooded backyard. The eat in kitchen is well designed and invites one to enjoy quiet mornings with coffee at the kitchen table or island, and can easily accommodate cooking for a crowd. Every space reflects a life well lived and thoughtfully maintained. Featuring 4 generously sized bedrooms and 2.5 baths, this flexible and thoughtfully designed residence offers room to grow, gather, and relax. The main level provides an easy flow ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, with 2 first floor bedrooms offering privacy and room for guests, home office space, or multigenerational living. Upstairs are 2 light filled, oversized bedrooms and another full bath. The lower level offers a finished rec room with a walkout door to the backyard plus an additional half bath, laundry room and direct access to the two car garage. The layout and location here offers comfort, convenience and flexibility — with generous living areas designed for connection and private bedroom spaces that allow everyone room to unwind. Natural light fills the home, creating a warm, inviting atmosphere throughout. Set in a desirable Hurley location, just minutes from historic and vibrant Uptown Kingston, Woodstock, Stone Ridge and commuter routes, this home combines the ease of country living with everyday convenience. For the first time since it was built, 337 Elmendorf Drive is ready to welcome its next chapter. Homes like this — built with care, owned with pride, and offered for the first time — are rare and an opportunity to create the next generation of memories.
