Architectural. Artistic. Entirely unforgettable. Tucked away on 1.73 private acres just moments from Tinker Street in Woodstock, this one-of-a-kind residence feels like something pulled straight from the pages of a design magazine. Blending a Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired contemporary addition with an original Buckminster Fuller-style geodesic dome, the home is equal parts sculpture, sanctuary, and statement. With over 3,300 square feet of light-filled living space, the interiors are designed to inspire—featuring soaring Douglas fir ceilings, warm hardwood floors, dramatic architectural lines, and walls of glass that blur the boundary between indoors and nature. The flexible layout effortlessly supports creative living, entertaining, remote work, or multi-generational use—all wrapped in unmistakable Hudson Valley style. A lofted gallery office overlooks the space below and leads to a stunning primary retreat complete with a private gas stove, spa-like steam shower, dual vanities, and oversized walk-in closet. The lower level offers two beautifully appointed bedroom suites with guest baths and direct access to the stone patio and surrounding landscape, creating the perfect setup for visitors or extended stays. The iconic dome offers its own private entrance, full kitchen, bath, and wood-burning stove—ideal as an artist studio, guest house, wellness space, Airbnb potential, or inspiring creative escape. Outside, mature trees, curated grounds, and a Central Park-inspired gazebo create an atmosphere that feels secluded, serene, and deeply connected to nature. Walk to Woodstock's beloved restaurants, galleries, boutiques, and live music venues, then return home to complete privacy and architectural beauty. A truly rare opportunity to own one of the Hudson Valley's most distinctive homes.
