Nestled at the beginning of a quiet dead-end street in one of Kingston's desirable neighborhoods, 11 Lay Street offers the perfect blend of space, comfort, and location. This charming two-story home features four spacious bedrooms along with a versatile den and dedicated office, ideal for today's work-from-home lifestyle or flexible living needs. Thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the home provides a welcoming layout with generous natural light and comfortable flow throughout. The additional den creates the perfect retreat for relaxation, a playroom, or guest space, while the private office allows for productivity without compromise. Situated on a peaceful dead-end road, the property enjoys minimal traffic and a tranquil residential setting, yet remains just minutes from Kingston's vibrant dining, shopping, and historic amenities. The location offers the best of both worlds -- quiet neighborhood living with convenient access to everything the city has to offer. Owner says some hardwood floors in some rooms. Carpet in den 3 yrs. AS IS
