Marvelous mid-town Kingston home that combines a modern feel with early 20th century charm! Freshly painted interior with refinished hardwood floors throughout, as well as first floor laundry with half bath. There are lots of cabinets in the updated kitchen, complete with recessed lighting, gas stove/oven, dishwasher and quartz countertops. Open living room/dining room floor plan for easy entertaining. A special touch is a barndoor in the living room that leads to the basement. The second floor includes three bedrooms, a full bath and a walk-up attic connected, once again, with beautiful, refinished hardwood floors. Easy exterior maintenance with vinyl siding and windows. New gutters! Stay warm in the winter with forced air heat and cool in the summer with central air. You can grill or have morning coffee outside on the deck and you also have extra storage in the two-story shed. Off street parking! Minutes from the Rondout and downtown Kingston, the Stockade district and uptown Kingston, retail, restaurants, and Health Alliance Hospital.
