Now available in the heart of Rosendale, this approximately 1,650 SF storefront offers a unique opportunity to lease a fully built-out restaurant or hospitality space. The space features a welcoming front bar with exposed brick, original tin ceilings, hardwood floors, and strong natural light, along with a secondary dining area that allows for flexible seating. The rear includes a functional commercial kitchen with prep and dish areas, supporting a wide range of food and beverage concepts. The layout includes two bathrooms--one off the main area and a second located at the end of the rear hallway--as well as a washer and dryer conveniently situated off the bar. Positioned on Main Street, the property benefits from steady foot traffic and a vibrant local business environment. Lease terms are 3-5 years with a four-month security deposit; utilities are not included, and the full equipment list is included in the documents.
