11 Blue Heron Drive, Marbletown Set on 3.7 level acres just moments from the Ashokan Reservoir, this beautifully crafted four-bedroom, three-bath custom home offers a rare combination of quality, privacy, and natural beauty. Built in 1996 by a contractor for his own family, the home reflects thoughtful construction and enduring craftsmanship. Privately situated at the end of a gracious, tree-lined drive, the meticulously maintained residence overlooks a picturesque lagoon (not part of the property) and is framed by mature trees, abundant birdlife, and the soothing sounds of nature. Open lawns and fenced garden areas further enhance the peaceful, park-like setting. A detached garage/workshop with a charming studio above adds exceptional flexibility and an additional 600sf. Complete with its own wood-burning stove, kitchen and bathroom, the studio is equally well suited to guests, a home office, or creative pursuits. The setting is especially appealing to those who love the outdoors, with easy access to scenic biking and reservoir paths along the Ashokan, as well as Catskills hiking, kayaking, and skiing. A private, beautifully maintained property in an exceptional Marbletown setting, offering both a sense of retreat and convenient access to the best of the Hudson Valley and Catskills.
